

DRY GOODS CALAMITY!

116,000 square feet of floor space covered by high-grade merchandise.

$60,000 WORTH OF NEW DRY GOODS, NOTIONS, SILKS, MILLINERY, ETC.

Special Trolley Service for this sale. Cars stop at the doors.

Which is Owned and Managed by E. T. FAULKNER CO., Corner of Broad and First Streets, Richmond, Va.

NOW UNDER LOCK AND KEY.

Experts from New York City have been engaged to personally conduct this sale, and given full power to cut and slash, and they propose to show and prove to the people of Richmond and vicinity that, in order to make rapid work, part of this valuable

STOCK TO BE SOLD

50 CENTS ON THE DOLLAR

STOCK TO BE SOLD.

PUBLIC SALE FRIDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 20th, 9:20 O'CLOCK, PROMPT.

DOUBLE WIDTH DRESS GOODS---REMNANTS, 47c

Silks. Colors, 50c. grade. This sale ..... 25c	Outing Flannel. 2,000 yards to sell. 7c. value, this sale ..... 47c	700 Umbrellas. BIG ASSORTMENT. All $1.00 value 50c
Corsets. 33c. value, this sale ..... 25c	Embroideries. 35c. value, this sale ..... 47c	Misses' Union Suits. 35c. value, this sale ..... 19c

$60,000 WORTH NEW DRY GOODS.

Madras. Bonnet, 36 inches wide. 12c. value, this sale ..... 53c	Men's Shirts. 50c. Percales, with cuffs. To sell at, this sale ..... 39c	Ladies' Hats. Flare shapes, this season. $1.50 to $2 value, this sale ..... 79c
--	---	--

MERCHANTS NOT BARRED OUT!

Storekeepers and Country Merchants wishing to purchase portions of this well-selected stock must do so between the hours of 4 and 6 in the afternoon, as the retail trade and consumers shall be and must be looked after first. Doors open Friday morning, this week.

Yard Wide Sheeting. Four cases to sell. 7c. value, this sale ..... 47c	Ladies' Wrappers. ALL COLORS. $1.00 value, this sale ..... 59c	300 Tailor-Made Suits. NEW AND PRETTY. $15.00 value, this sale ..... $7.49
Pillow Cases. LARGE SIZE. 25c. value, this sale ..... 11c	Trimmed Hats. 140 TO CLOSE OUT. $1 value, this sale ..... $1.08	Night Gowns. 75c. VALUE. Ladies', this sale ..... 48c

VOLUNTEERS UNDER- TAKING!
WAIT! WAIT! LOOK! Citizens of Richmond and vicinity in clover. E. T. Faulkner Co., immense Dry-Goods Store, corner First and Broad Streets, creates much confusion. Mer- chandise is being sold at such a marvelous under- selling as to create an ag- gravation of new merchan- dise right here in the ad- jacent section. Read care- fully every word on this sheet. Bring it with you FRIDAY.

The Great Corner Building, with its four floors of show room, is now a promiscuous mingling together of Dress Goods, Silks, Underwear, Skirts, Millinery and Notions. Packed from floor to ceiling, shelving loaded down with excellent merchandise, necessitates a disposal of same in its entirety. Every article a startling bargain! The sharpest, swiftest and most phenomenal record-breaking sale for low prices. Clean, fresh, stylish, wantable merchandise only. Not one person should miss this sale!

$1 Kid Gloves. FOR LADIES. Colors, this sale ..... 59c	Lace Curtains. NEWEST THINGS. Value $1.50 to $3, this sale ..... 89c
--	---

SELLING THE WHOLE STOCK

DRY GOODS HOUSE CLOSED TIGHTLY.

A Monstrous Demonstration!

E. T. FAULKNER CO., BIG CORNER BUILDING, BROAD AND FIRST STREETS.

Now undergoing radical transformation. Preparation by the management extraordinary. The entire building, with its four immense floors, carrying over 56 distinct departments, affected, and prices slashed by the mighty experts that must and will bring the masses from all parts of the State of Virginia.

Ginghams. EVERETTE-CLASSICS. 5c. value, this sale ..... 5c	Flannellettes. 24 inch wide-colors. 15c. value, this sale ..... 53c	Ready Towels. BIG SIZE, 10c. VALUE. Size 20x40, this sale ..... 5c	Dress Top Skirts. HANDSOME CLOTH. $2.25 value, this sale ..... $1.48
---	--	---	---

Pillows and Head Rests. Fancy, all sizes; to be sold 50c. on the dollar.	Will Not Be Open Before FRIDAY MORNING.	Muslin Gowns and Skirts. $1.50 values, this sale ..... 89c
--	--	---

Exactly twenty minutes after 9 o'clock the doors will be released for the largest retail transaction of business actually done in these parts. Nothing will be spared no reserved.

Limited to a Few Days Only.

Doors Swing Open Friday A. M.

February 19th, Precisely at 9:20 o'clock.

E. T. FAULKNER CO., Daylight Cash Store, Corner Broad and First Streets, RICHMOND, VA.

40 ADDITIONAL SALESPeOPLE WANTED.

MR. HAWKINS PRESIDENT

Popular City Official to Preside Over Young Men's Christian Association During Year.

HAVE ASSOCIATE BOARD

Thirty-one Young Men to be Given Definite Responsibilities—Fellowship League.

New officers of the Young Men's Christian Association, elected Tuesday night, are:

President, O. A. Hawkins; first vice-president, W. J. Whitburn; second vice-president, Beverly T. Crump; third vice-president, Charles E. Brainer; recording secretary, E. N. Newman; treasurer, Oliver J. Sands. Mr. Charles Lorraine was elected a member of the board. One of the most important matters taken up was a resolution providing for the appointment of an associate board of thirty-one young men, to assist in the work and take definite responsibilities. A committee, composed of the president, Dr. T. D. Morrick, and General Secretary McKee, was appointed to name the associate board.

The Fellowship League will meet at lunch this evening at 6:30 o'clock, and to-morrow night at 8 o'clock the board of directors will complete plans for the closing of the association year; and on Saturday night at 8:30 the Arion Male

Wedding Gifts.

Innumerable articles of ORIGINAL DESIGN that cannot be duplicated or found elsewhere.

When quality is considered our prices are invariably the lowest.

Galt & Bro.,
Jewellers, Silversmiths, Stationers,
1102 Pennsylvania Avenue,
Washington, D. C.

FULTON NEWS.

Quartette of Atlanta, Ga., will entertain under the auspices of the Membership Campaign Committee.

Superintendent Richard B. Hill, of Port Harrison Cemetery, left last Friday for Danville, Va., where he has been transferred by the government to take charge of the Danville National Cemetery. Superintendent Jarvis, of Hampton, Va., who was appointed to succeed Mr. Hill, has arrived and taken charge of the Port Harrison Cemetery.

Rev. E. Gary Paine, of Roanoke, who was expected to begin a series of meetings at the Roanoke Church, was brilliant and interesting. His first sermon, which was held on Sunday night last, was a most successful one.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Roanoke Church, which was organized on Sunday night last, is now holding its first meeting. The society is composed of ladies from the Roanoke Church and the surrounding churches.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Roanoke Church, which was organized on Sunday night last, is now holding its first meeting. The society is composed of ladies from the Roanoke Church and the surrounding churches.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Roanoke Church, which was organized on Sunday night last, is now holding its first meeting. The society is composed of ladies from the Roanoke Church and the surrounding churches.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Roanoke Church, which was organized on Sunday night last, is now holding its first meeting. The society is composed of ladies from the Roanoke Church and the surrounding churches.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Roanoke Church, which was organized on Sunday night last, is now holding its first meeting. The society is composed of ladies from the Roanoke Church and the surrounding churches.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Roanoke Church, which was organized on Sunday night last, is now holding its first meeting. The society is composed of ladies from the Roanoke Church and the surrounding churches.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Roanoke Church, which was organized on Sunday night last, is now holding its first meeting. The society is composed of ladies from the Roanoke Church and the surrounding churches.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Roanoke Church, which was organized on Sunday night last, is now holding its first meeting. The society is composed of ladies from the Roanoke Church and the surrounding churches.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Roanoke Church, which was organized on Sunday night last, is now holding its first meeting. The society is composed of ladies from the Roanoke Church and the surrounding churches.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Roanoke Church, which was organized on Sunday night last, is now holding its first meeting. The society is composed of ladies from the Roanoke Church and the surrounding churches.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Roanoke Church, which was organized on Sunday night last, is now holding its first meeting. The society is composed of ladies from the Roanoke Church and the surrounding churches.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Roanoke Church, which was organized on Sunday night last, is now holding its first meeting. The society is composed of ladies from the Roanoke Church and the surrounding churches.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Roanoke Church, which was organized on Sunday night last, is now holding its first meeting. The society is composed of ladies from the Roanoke Church and the surrounding churches.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Roanoke Church, which was organized on Sunday night last, is now holding its first meeting. The society is composed of ladies from the Roanoke Church and the surrounding churches.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Roanoke Church, which was organized on Sunday night last, is now holding its first meeting. The society is composed of ladies from the Roanoke Church and the surrounding churches.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Roanoke Church, which was organized on Sunday night last, is now holding its first meeting. The society is composed of ladies from the Roanoke Church and the surrounding churches.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Roanoke Church, which was organized on Sunday night last, is now holding its first meeting. The society is composed of ladies from the Roanoke Church and the surrounding churches.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Roanoke Church, which was organized on Sunday night last, is now holding its first meeting. The society is composed of ladies from the Roanoke Church and the surrounding churches.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Roanoke Church, which was organized on Sunday night last, is now holding its first meeting. The society is composed of ladies from the Roanoke Church and the surrounding churches.

VIRGINIA BRIEFS

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

ROANOKE, Va., Feb. 17.—A defective flue was the cause of the destruction by fire to-day of a two-story frame dwelling house, near Vinton, owned by Dr. S. H. Price, of Montvale. The occupants of the house saved all of their furniture.

TAZEWELL, Va.—The store of Gose and Groceries, in Burke's Garden, was entered yesterday and robbed of goods to the amount of $50. The proprietors had no idea of the robbery until several days after, when some one found goods in a stump near by, which were recognized by them as belonging to their store.

BRISTOL, Va.—Rev. Edward A. Tilly, who has been a Methodist missionary in Brazil for more than fifteen years, has been the guest of his mother here for a few days. He will sail for Brazil on March 5th. Mr. Tilly's visit to this country at this time was due to the necessity of an operation to overcome threatened hernia. The operation was successfully performed.

FREDERICKSBURG, Va.—The County Democratic Committee of Caroline has recommended to the circuit judge for appointment the following as members of the new Electoral Board: Messrs. A. G. Smith, H. Martin and L. P. Gouldin.

PORTSMOUTH, Va.—A dog, foaming at the mouth and exhibiting every symptom of rabies, was prevented from biting several children at play on the sidewalk in Portsmouth by the quick action of Patrolman Land, who shot it as it was attacking the little ones.

WINCHESTER, Va.—Aylette N. Compton and Miss Anna Sheetz eloped from Front Royal this afternoon and were married at Hotel Evans, in this city, by Rev. D. B. Bulla, of the Southern Methodist Church.

GREEN TISDALE KILLED.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

MEMPHIS, Va., Feb. 17.—The negro who was killed in a row near Columbia Grove Saturday was Green Tisdale. Three negroes became involved in a dispute over some trivial matter and the struggle between them drew their knives and razors and began slashing each other until Tisdale fell and died. One of the other two is seriously wounded, and the third is expected to die. The third escaped with slight injury. He being the one who did the fatal work, immediately left for parts unknown, and the sheriff returned to-day and reported that he was unable to locate him.

AFTER THE GREEK.
The wealthy suburbanite, who is proud of styling himself "self-made and self-educated," had been to the city, and returned with the plans of the architect for a grand new mansion they were to build in the spring. After he and his good

PNEUMONIA IN CHICAGO.
Over 3,000 people died of pneumonia in Chicago last year. In every case the disease resulted from a cold. Had the cold been promptly and properly treated, the outbreak almost everyone would have recovered. This statement is abundantly proved by the fact that among the tens of thousands throughout this country who use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to cure their colds, no case of pneumonia has ever been reported, which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventive of pneumonia. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has gained its wide reputation and enormous sale by the prompt and effectual cures of colds and can always be depended upon. For sale by all druggists.

For many years he conducted a saloon at this place.

Three brothers survive him, C. A. Wood and L. W. Wood, of Oak Ridge, Nelson county, Va., and C. W. Wood, of Alexandria, Va. He also has a sister, Roger Jones, immigrant, who came to this country in 1830, and was admiral of the colony. He married an English lady of large fortune, and was said to have been a captain in the Cavalry army during the troublous times of Charles I. and Charles II.

The son of Roger Jones and great grandfather of the subject of this sketch married Elizabeth, daughter of William Cocke, Secretary of the Colony and Chief Justice, who died on the bench. He was an immediate friend of Governor Spotswood. Secretary Cocke's wife was a Catesby, sister of Mark Catesby, a celebrated naturalist, and of the ancient family of that name.

The grandfather of Dr. Jones, William Jones, married Lucy Carter, widow of Charles Carter, of Cleves, whose maiden name was Tallaferro. He was otherwise connected with some of the most noted families in Virginia.

Dr. Jones graduated at William and Mary College. He was destined for the bar, but subsequently abandoned the study of law for that of medicine. He came a student at the University of Virginia, he graduated there in one session, being the first man who ever performed that feat. He then took a degree in medicine at Jefferson College, Philadelphia, and also at the University of Pennsylvania.

After practicing medicine in Baltimore for several years, he returned to Virginia about the year 1850 and pursued his profession until the breaking out of the war, when he enlisted as a private soldier. His high professional qualifications, however, fitting him for a higher position, he was appointed surgeon in the army, and at the close of the war was a full surgeon in the 11th Alabama regiment. In that capacity he bore out his high reputation, and on the field of battle was known to minister to the wounded under fire. It is needless to say he was an ardent believer in the righteousness of the Southern cause. He continued in that service until the close of the war.

In 1863 he was united in marriage to Elizabeth Govan Hill, of King William county. He removed to A. emarie county about eighteen years ago and subsequently on the death of his wife took up his residence with his son-in-law, Dr. Roy

K. Flanagan, of Charlottesville, and there passed the remainder of his life. Dr. Jones was a man of fine literary tastes, and for several years prior to his death was a constant visitor to the University, where, in its classic cloisters, it was his chief delight to feast on its literary treasures. He was an ardent admirer of the British character. His favorite authors were Lord Macaulay and Dr. Samuel Johnson. He also kept fully up with the pregnant issues of the day, upon which he was a well-informed man. He was a man of sterling character, rigid in his conceptions of right and duty, and always preferred to suffer rather than to inflict wrong. Hospitable, generous and sympathetic, he was beloved by his friends and all who knew him.

Dr. Jones united with the Baptist Church in his early manhood, under the ministrations of the celebrated Dr. Fuller, of Baltimore, and was a life-long and consistent member of that Church. Thus was passed the remainder of a serene old age, and sustained by a profound conviction of the mediatorial work of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the consciousness of a blameless life, he was enabled on his death bed to say with sublime confidence: "Death has no terrors for me."

Richmond, Va., Feb. 16, 1904.

DEATHS.

DICKERSON.—Died, at his residence, No. 2 N. Cherry Street, at 8 A. M., February 17, 1904, CHAS. C. DICKERSON, aged thirty-one years.

Funeral services at his late residence, 1300 P. M., FEBRUARY 18th, 1904.

GORTON.—Died, Wednesday, February 17, 1904, at 8:45, at her residence, 217 N. Twenty-seventh Street, Mrs. ALICE V. GORTON, after a lingering illness.

Funeral services at her late residence, 10:30 A. M., THURSDAY MORNING, February 19th, 1904, at the residence of her son, Mr. J. H. Gorton, 1300 P. M.

JUSTIS.—Died, at the Virginia Hospital, Tuesday, February 17, 1904, at 8:45, at his residence, 1300 P. M., THURSDAY MORNING, February 19th, 1904, at the residence of his son, Mr. J. H. Justis, after a lingering illness.

Funeral services at his late residence, 10:30 A. M., THURSDAY MORNING, February 19th, 1904, at the residence of his son, Mr. J. H. Justis, 1300 P. M.

PRICE.—Died, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. M. B. Staples, No. 1417 Hill Street, at 11 o'clock, Monday, February 16, 1904, Mrs. MOLLIE C. PRICE, aged fifty-eight years.

Funeral services at her late residence, 10:30 A. M., THURSDAY MORNING, February 19th, 1904, at the residence of her son, Mr. J. H. Price, 1300 P. M.

Funeral services at her late residence, 10:30 A. M., THURSDAY MORNING, February 19th, 1904, at the residence of her son, Mr. J. H. Price, 1300 P. M.

Funeral services at her late residence, 10:30 A. M., THURSDAY MORNING, February 19th, 1904, at the residence of her son, Mr. J. H. Price, 1300 P. M.

For many years he conducted a saloon at this place.

Three brothers survive him, C. A. Wood and L. W. Wood, of Oak Ridge, Nelson county, Va., and C. W. Wood, of Alexandria, Va. He also has a sister, Roger Jones, immigrant, who came to this country in 1830, and was admiral of the colony. He married an English lady of large fortune, and was said to have been a captain in the Cavalry army during the troublous times of Charles I. and Charles II.

The son of Roger Jones and great grandfather of the subject of this sketch married Elizabeth, daughter of William Cocke, Secretary of the Colony and Chief Justice, who died on the bench. He was an immediate friend of Governor Spotswood. Secretary Cocke's wife was a Catesby, sister of Mark Catesby, a celebrated naturalist, and of the ancient family of that name.

The grandfather of Dr. Jones, William Jones, married Lucy Carter, widow of Charles Carter, of Cleves, whose maiden name was Tallaferro. He was otherwise connected with some of the most noted families in Virginia.

Dr. Jones graduated at William and Mary College. He was destined for the bar, but subsequently abandoned the study of law for that of medicine. He came a student at the University of Virginia, he graduated there in one session, being the first man who ever performed that feat. He then took a degree in medicine at Jefferson College, Philadelphia, and also at the University of Pennsylvania.

After practicing medicine in Baltimore for several years, he returned to Virginia about the year 1850 and pursued his profession until the breaking out of the war, when he enlisted as a private soldier. His high professional qualifications, however, fitting him for a higher position, he was appointed surgeon in the army, and at the close of the war was a full surgeon in the 11th Alabama regiment. In that capacity he bore out his high reputation, and on the field of battle was known to minister to the wounded under fire. It is needless to say he was an ardent believer in the righteousness of the Southern cause. He continued in that service until the close of the war.

In 1863 he was united in marriage to Elizabeth Govan Hill, of King William county. He removed to A. emarie county about eighteen years ago and subsequently on the death of his wife took up his residence with his son-in-law, Dr. Roy

K. Flanagan, of Charlottesville, and there passed the remainder of his life. Dr. Jones was a man of fine literary tastes, and for several years prior to his death was a constant visitor to the University, where, in its classic cloisters, it was his chief delight to feast on its literary treasures. He was an ardent admirer of the British character. His favorite authors were Lord Macaulay and Dr. Samuel Johnson. He also kept fully up with the pregnant issues of the day, upon which he was a well-informed man. He was a man of sterling character, rigid in his conceptions of right and duty, and always preferred to suffer rather than to inflict wrong. Hospitable, generous and sympathetic, he was beloved by his friends and all who knew him.

Dr. Jones united with the Baptist Church in his early manhood, under the ministrations of the celebrated Dr. Fuller, of Baltimore, and was a life-long and consistent member of that Church. Thus was passed the remainder of a serene old age, and sustained by a profound conviction of the mediatorial work of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the consciousness of a blameless life, he was enabled on his death bed to say with sublime confidence: "Death has no terrors for me."

Richmond, Va., Feb. 16, 1904.

DEATHS.

DICKERSON.—Died, at his residence, No. 2 N. Cherry Street, at 8 A. M., February 17, 1904, CHAS. C. DICKERSON, aged thirty-one years.

Funeral services at his late residence, 1300 P. M., FEBRUARY 18th, 1904.

GORTON.—Died, Wednesday, February 17, 1904, at 8:45, at her residence, 217 N. Twenty-seventh Street, Mrs. ALICE V. GORTON, after a lingering illness.

Funeral services at her late residence, 10:30 A. M., THURSDAY MORNING, February 19th, 1904, at the residence of her son, Mr. J. H. Gorton, 1300 P. M.

JUSTIS.—Died, at the Virginia Hospital, Tuesday, February 17, 1904, at 8:45, at his residence, 1300 P. M., THURSDAY MORNING, February 19th, 1904, at the residence of his son, Mr. J. H. Justis, after a lingering illness.

Funeral services at his late residence, 10:30 A. M., THURSDAY MORNING, February 19th, 1904, at the residence of his son, Mr. J. H. Justis, 1300 P. M.

PRICE.—Died, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. M. B. Staples, No. 1417 Hill Street, at 11 o'clock, Monday, February 16, 1904, Mrs. MOLLIE C. PRICE, aged fifty-eight years.

Funeral services at her late residence, 10:30 A. M., THURSDAY MORNING, February 19th, 1904, at the residence of her son, Mr. J. H. Price, 1300 P. M.

Funeral services at her late residence, 10:30 A. M., THURSDAY MORNING, February 19th, 1904, at the residence of her son, Mr. J. H. Price, 1300 P. M.

Funeral services at her late residence, 10:30 A. M., THURSDAY MORNING, February 19th, 1904, at the residence of her son, Mr. J. H. Price, 1300 P. M.

For many years he conducted a saloon at this place.

Three brothers survive him, C. A. Wood and L. W. Wood, of Oak Ridge, Nelson county, Va., and C. W. Wood, of Alexandria, Va. He also has a sister, Roger Jones, immigrant, who came to this country in 1830, and was admiral of the colony. He married an English lady of large fortune, and was said to have been a captain in the Cavalry army during the troublous times of Charles I. and Charles II.

The son of Roger Jones and great grandfather of the subject of this sketch married Elizabeth, daughter of William Cocke, Secretary of the Colony and Chief Justice, who died on the bench. He was an immediate friend of Governor Spotswood. Secretary Cocke's wife was a Catesby, sister of Mark Catesby, a celebrated naturalist, and of the ancient family of that name.

The grandfather of Dr. Jones, William Jones, married Lucy Carter, widow of Charles Carter, of Cleves, whose maiden name was Tallaferro. He was otherwise connected with some of the most noted families in Virginia.

Dr. Jones graduated at William and Mary College. He was destined for the bar, but subsequently abandoned the study of law for that of medicine. He came a student at the University of Virginia, he graduated there in one session, being the first man who ever performed that feat. He then took a degree in medicine at Jefferson College, Philadelphia, and also at the University of Pennsylvania.

After practicing medicine in Baltimore for several years, he returned to Virginia about the year 1850 and pursued his profession until the breaking out of the war, when he enlisted as a private soldier. His high professional qualifications, however, fitting him for a higher position, he was appointed surgeon in the army, and at the close of the war was a full surgeon in the 11th Alabama regiment. In that capacity he bore out his high reputation, and on the field of battle was known to minister to the wounded under fire. It is needless to say he was an ardent believer in the righteousness of the Southern cause. He continued in that service until the close of the war.

In 1863 he was united in marriage to Elizabeth Govan Hill, of King William county. He removed to A. emarie county about eighteen years ago and subsequently on the death of his wife took up his residence with his son-in-law, Dr. Roy

K. Flanagan, of Charlottesville, and there passed the remainder of his life. Dr. Jones was a man of fine literary tastes, and for several years prior to his death was a constant visitor to the University, where, in its classic cloisters, it was his chief delight to feast on its literary treasures. He was an ardent admirer of the British character. His favorite authors were Lord Macaulay and Dr. Samuel Johnson. He also kept fully up with the pregnant issues of the day, upon which he was a well-informed man. He was a man of sterling character, rigid in his conceptions of right and duty, and always preferred to suffer rather than to inflict wrong. Hospitable, generous and sympathetic, he was beloved by his friends and all who knew him.

Dr. Jones united with the Baptist Church in his early manhood, under the ministrations of the celebrated Dr. Fuller, of Baltimore, and was a life-long and consistent member of that Church. Thus was passed the remainder of a serene old age, and sustained by a profound conviction of the mediatorial work of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the consciousness of a blameless life, he was enabled on his death bed to say with sublime confidence: "Death has no terrors for me."

Richmond, Va., Feb. 16, 1904.

DEATHS.

DICKERSON.—Died, at his residence, No. 2 N. Cherry Street, at 8 A. M., February 17, 1904, CHAS. C. DICKERSON, aged thirty-one years.

Funeral services at his late residence, 1300 P. M., FEBRUARY 18th, 1904.

GORTON.—Died, Wednesday, February 17, 1904, at 8:45, at her residence, 217 N. Twenty-seventh Street, Mrs. ALICE V. GORTON, after a lingering illness.

Funeral services at her late